Socialis, Inc. a networking service company, (Head office: Higashinari-ku Osaka-shi Osaka Japan, President: Tomoyuki Tsujimoto) has launched iOS application “Socialis” today March 31 2018. Socialis is a new Social Media platform that specializes in viewing and banding together a variety of Social Media such as Facebook ,Instagram, Twitter and YouTube. The interface is well designed so that viewing is stress-free. It has a Cliplist where users can freely band many posts together. Socialis enhances your Social Media experience.

1. The timeline displays information from everyone you are following.

Each time a user you are following updates their SNS posts, it will be available on your timeline.*

*Posts will not appear if the user you are following has their SNS privacy setting as "friends only" or their post is hidden.

2. Need more time? Need to multitask? Amazing clarity and control for maximum usability

The post is displayed by tapping on the thumbnail. All you do is scroll down to see your posts!

3. Band posts together as a "Cliplist" and share them

Band together the latest topics or posts collected from your unique perspective about favorite celebrities, etc. You can also bind anniversary posts as albums. The use is up to you. Cliplists can be public or private so your
